I have worked in two pharmacy factories, one for two years, another for 3 years.

On 2004, I got a job as Java Developer in a small company. The project I worked on is to build a WEB based Office automation system for one department in Government.

On 2005, I join Bleum and at the same year, I got my baby. Now he is more than 4 years old. he is lovely and full of energy, he bring me a lot of happiness. The only regret is that I did not spend enough time with him, instead
